To: Prospective employer of Andrew Haus

Dear Sir or Madam,

Over the last five plus years Andrew has always conducted in himself in a highly professional manner. With his architectural back ground, he has been a significant resource to Hammes Company and has a proven track record for project management.

Andrew has successfully completed the delivery of several major acute care health facilities, earning recommendations for Hammes Company as well as personally from each of the clients Andrew has worked with..

As a supervisor and colleague of Andrew's, I would recommend Andrew as a valuable addition to your staff.

Sincerely

Jerry Heberlein – VP - Operations
